ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
99-35

WHEREAS, A.R.S. § 41-623 requires the Arizona Department of Administration to promulgate rules and regulations to initiate and implement a risk management and loss control program for all state departments, agencies, boards and commissions to reduce risks, accidents and property liability and workers compensation losses; and

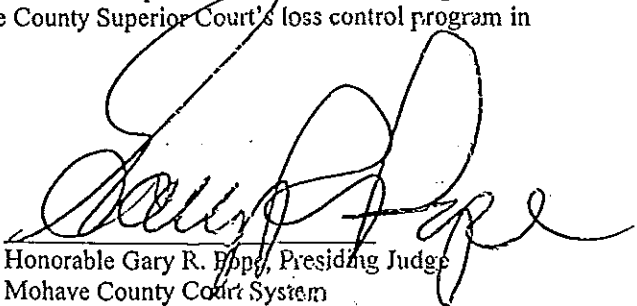

WHEREAS, pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-623 the Arizona Department of Administration promulgated Rules R2-10-205 and R2-10-206 of the Arizona Administrative Code requiring each State agency to adopt a loss control policy, develop and implement loss control programs, and establish and implement procedures for the management of the same;

IT IS ORDERED that the Superior Court in Mohave County and all divisions and departments thereof, including the Court Administrator's Office, the Clerk of the Superior Court, Adult and Juvenile Probation Department and Conciliation Court provide a safe and healthful work environment for all court employees, protect the State of Arizona from property losses, and actively address conditions that could result in third party liability claims against the State.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Superior Court in Mohave County shall adopt the existing Mohave County Risk Management plan to meet requirements of A.R.S. § 41-623.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED appointing Richard S. Weldon of the Mohave County Risk Management Department as the Risk Management Coordinator for the Superior Court in Mohave County which shall include conducting and coordinating the loss control policy for the Superior Court. He shall meet with the Mohave County Superior Court Security Coordinator as needed to comply with the above requirements. The Risk Management Coordinator shall develop, implement and monitor the Mohave County Superior Court's loss control program in accordance with Arizona Administrative Code, R2-10-206.

DATED this 25th day of May, 1999

Honorable Gary R. Pope, Presiding Judge
Mohave County Court System
